

St James Infirmary Blues

(Traditional)

Intro: Bb // A // Dm / Bb // A // Dm /

Dm A Dm
It was down at old Joe's bar-room,

Bb A A7
At the corner by the square,

Dm A Dm
Drinks were served as usual,

Bb A Dm
And the usual crowd was there.

Dm A Dm
On my left stood big Joe McKenney,

Bb A A7
His eyes were bloodshot red,

Dm A Dm
And as he looked at the crowd around him

Bb A Dm
These were the very words he said.

Dm A Dm
I went down to St. James Infirmary

Bb A A7
I saw my baby there,

Dm A Dm
Stretched out on a long white table,

Bb A Dm
So young, so cold, so fair.

Dm A Dm
Seventeen coal-black horses,

Bb A A7
Hitched to a rubber-tyred hack,

Dm A Dm
Seven girls goin' to the graveyard,

Bb A Dm
Only six of them are coming back

St James Infirmary Blues (Cont'd)

Dm      A      Dm
Let her go, let her go, God bless her

Bb      A      A7
Wherever she may be,

Dm      A      Dm
She may search this wide world over,

Bb      A      Dm
And never find another man like me.

Dm      A      Dm
When I die, when I die, just bury me,

Bb      A      A7
In my high-top Stetson hat,

Dm      A      Dm
Place a twenty-dollar goldpiece on my watch chain,

Bb      A      Dm
To let the Lord know I died standing pat.

Dm      A      Dm
I want six crap-shooters for my pallbearers,

Bb      A      A7
A chorus girl to sing me a song,

Dm      A      Dm
Place a jazz band on my hearse-wagon,

Bb      A      Dm
To raise hell as we roll along.

Dm      A      Dm
Now that you've heard my story,

Bb      A      A7
I'll take another shot of booze,

Dm      A      Dm
And if anyone here should ask you,

Bb      A      Dm      Bb /// A / // Dm /
I've got those old gambler's blues.
